

JORGE IWANCZUK
The History of Soccer

Profile and background

Public Accountant, University of Buenos Aires, Argentina.
Bachelor of Business Administration, University of Buenos Aires, Argentina.

Seminar on “Development of Small and Medium-Sized Business”, Turin, Italy, on a scholarship granted by the World Trade Organization (WTO).

Professional experience for more than 20 years in his private accounting office.

Extracurricular activity

Author of the book “Historia del Fútbol Amateur en la Argentina” (History of Amateur Soccer in Argentina) declared “of interest” by the National Sports Secretariat and the Municipality of Quilmes, Buenos Aires, Argentina. This text has been used as bibliography in most of the club histories published in recent years.

Teacher of “The History of Soccer” in ATFA (Argentine Soccer Coaches Association).

Lecturer in E.S.E.D. and ETER journalism schools.

Lecturer during the event “The History of Alumni” held for the 100th anniversary of the English High School, in Buenos Aires, October 2000.

Lecturer in the First Symposium of Soccer Historians, organized by the Legislature of the Autonomous City of Buenos Aires, on September 7, 2009.

Frequently interviewed in radio and television on the history of Argentine soccer. TV program: “News in History” with Diego Valenzuela, by TN channel in July 2008.

